After Testifying, the Judge Orders His Detention; Later Released.

Following his testimony in the case of constable Domingo Montoya charged with assoult upon Josefina Hermandez. on trial in the 34th district court, Alfenso Lune, a witness for the defence, was ordered held by Judge Dan M. Jackson Friday afternoon, pending an investigation of his relations with the girl. Lama is said to have made testified to going to the White House inn in company with Nieto, Dominas Montoya and Josefina Hernandez and of the stop made beside the road on the return. On cross examination she said that Josefina did not call out and she denied the askault of the girl had been forced.

The defence introduced a number of witnesses who testified as to the character of the girl. These included Augustin Gallo, Hermeneilido Garcia, Manuel Gonzales, a policeman, Moiser Alvaratio and Nemecio Mardrid.

The defence rested at noon and arguments were begun after the noon hour.

"DICK" RULE'S SON AT HEAD

Carlsbad, N. M., Dec. 18.—Craddock Rule, son of the late "Dick" Rule, ome of the best known newspaper men in the southwest, and one of the original owners of The El Paso Herald, has organized the "Craddock Rule Stock company," and opened here his tour, which is to cover the greater part of New Mexico and West Texas. The initial engagement here was in "Bought and Paid For," and the comedy, "is Marriage a Fallure?" Both performances were greated by good houses before which Mr. Rule in the loading parts showed himself an actor of much ability. He was well supported.

The company went from here to Roswell, N. M., whence they go to other New Mexico towns and Texas Mr. Rule has had considerable experience as an actor and has been among others with the Barney Mullane, Agnes Geyer and Lucy Hayes companies. OF A DRAMATIC COMPANY

TODAY'S AMUSEMENTS

The great Geraldise Farrar in her film rendition of "Carmen," is at the Alhambra today and tomorrow, play-ing a special return engagement for many who were not able to attend, when this great work was shown here when this great work was shown here last month, and many who want to see the great Farrar again. "Carmen" with Miss Farrar has had nothing but the highest praise, wherever shown and has been attended by record breaking crowds in every place. In El Pass the largest number of people ever in a picture show in El Pass during one day, were in attendance at the initial exhibition of this masterpiess. Como today and come early. Many were crowded out last time.—Adv.

PRESIDENT AND MRS. GALT WED

President Wilson is 52 years old and Mrs. Galt 42. The president's marriage is the third which has occurred in his family since he became president. First there was the marriage of the president's youngest daughter, Jessie to Francis R. Sayre, of Williamstown, Mass., second, that of Miss Eleanor to secretary of the treasury William Riggs McAdoo.

The president's family is not quite so large as that of Mrs. Galt. He has one brother, Joseph R. Wilson, of Saltimore, and a sister Mrs. Anne Howe, of Philadelphia, his three daughters and several cousins. President is 55.

There Wedding of a President.

The marriage of the president will be the third wedding for a president will be the third wedding for a president of the United States while in office. President John Tyler was the first to marry while in office. The death of the first Mrs. Tyler occurred about a year after he became president. Two rears later he married Miss Julia Gardiner, of New York, who presided in the white house during the last winter of his administration. The wedding took place in the Church of the Assension, New York, in June 1844, and was a great surprise to the people of the country.

The next presidential marriage was that of Grover Cleveland, who in June, 1886, married the lovely Miss Frances Folsom, daughter of his former law partner, and many years his junfor. Their marriage took place at the white house, the ceremony being performed in the blue room in the presence of the embinet and a few relatives and intimate friends of the president and bride. Mr. Cleveland was a backelor and his marriage was received throughout the country with enthusians.

President Commutes Sentences.

President Commutes Seatences.

The president celebrated his wedding day by extending legislative clemency to several convicts. He gave a full pardon to Charles Conture, convicted at Missoula, Mont. for selling liquor to indians. He commuted the sentences of D. L. Dillingham, convicted in Georgia for operating an illicit distillery, and Wm. Hood, under conviction of robbery in Alabama.

PRESIDENT IS GODFATHER AT BABE'S CHRISTENING

Washington, D. C., Dec. 18.—Members of president Wilson's family attended at noon the christening of Elien Wilson McAdoo, daughter fo secretary of the treasury and Mrs. McAdoo, the president's only granddaughter. The christening was in the blue room of the white house.
